

German Chapel Patten Gogue

Through the steadfast efforts of Father Corbinian and the German Capuchins, a Catholic Chapel was built circa 1911. It is one of only a few building remnants from the German Colonial period and is now known as the Santa Lourdes Chapel.